

Locating Right There Evidence

Answers to Right There questions can be found in the text. Starring, underlining, or highlighting right there text evidence will help you answer the RT questions with ease!

STAR THE MAIN IDEA, CHARACTERS, AND THE MOST IMPORTANT DETAILS

UNDERLINE KEY WORDS OR PHRASES AND SUPPORTING DETAILS

HIGHLIGHT ENTIRE SECTIONS OR PARAPHRAGHS

RIGHT THERE* QUESTIONS

- Ask for specific details about the text
- Answers can be found directly in the text.
- Often begin with Who, When, Where, Which
- Look for Key Details, Plot Events, Characters
- Tell readers where to look
- Address specific sections of texts
- Ask what is the meaning of a word...

PUT IT INTO PRACTICE

When you take your test, label each question as a Right There Question (RT). As you read star, underline, and highlight text evidence connected to your RT questions.